

Contents

Preface	7
1. Introduction	9
2. Lifelong Education, Lifelong Learning, and the State	15
2.1 Some basic concepts for education policy analysis	15
2.2 The welfare state, the neo-liberal state, and adult education policies	19
2.3 Lifelong education and lifelong learning	28
3. The Analysis of Adult Learning and Education Policies	39
3.1 Analytical policy models of adult learning and education: Introduction	39
3.2 The democratic-emancipatory model	42
3.3 The modernisation and state control model	48
3.4 The human resources management model	56
4. The European Union: Strategies for Lifelong Learning	69
4.1 Favouring the link between economy and social cohesion	69
4.2 Adult education in the European Union	70
4.3 The Lisbon Strategy	77
4.4 The Memorandum on Lifelong Learning	86
4.5 Relaunching the Lisbon Strategy towards EU 2020	93
4.6 Synthesis	108
5. UNESCO as a Policy Actor in Education	113
5.1 The connection between education and development	113
5.2 Lifelong education: A democratic and humanistic project	115
5.3 Lifelong learning: State supervision and individual responsibility	122

5.4	A shift in the understanding of lifelong learning: CONFINTEA V	126
5.5	A complex understanding of lifelong learning: CONFINTEA VI	131
5.6	Synthesis	136
6.	Final Remarks	143
	List of Abbreviations	147
	Annotated Bibliography	148
	References	149
	About the Authors	161
	Index	163