Parents in the Spotlight: Parenting Practices and Support from a Comparative Perspective

Tanja Betz, Michael-Sebastian Honig and Ilona Ostner (Eds.)

Table of contents

Introduction

Ilona Ostner, Tanja Betz and Michael-Sebastian Honig
Introduction: Parenting practices and parenting support in recent debates and policies ...................................................................................................................... 5

A Parents and parenting: Concepts and recent state of the art

Michel Vandenbroeck, Naomi Geens, Freya Geinger, Tineke Schiettecat, Dorien Van Haute and Griet Roets
Parenting newspeak ........................................................................................................ 23

Mary Daly
Parenting: Critical insights from a sociological perspective ........................................ 41

Michael-Sebastian Honig
Review: Children and their parents in childhood studies ............................................. 57
B Parenting as performance

Manuela du Bois-Reymond
Learning processes in the transition to young parenthood ........................................ 81

Tanja Betz, Stefanie Bischoff and Laura B. Kayser
Unequal parents’ perspectives on education. An empirical investigation of the symbolic power of political models of good parenthood in Germany ...................... 99

Sabine Andresen
How families experience deprivation: A qualitative study on mothers and fathers living in poverty in Germany ................................................................. 119

Carol Vincent, Sarah Neal and Humera Iqbal
Families, friendships and diversity ............................................................................ 135

C Dangerous parenting?

Lars Alberth and Doris Bühler-Niederberger
The overburdened mother: How social workers view the private sphere ................. 153

Karin Kurz and Sten Becker
Health risk ‘single-mother family’? Towards an explanation of their low participation rate in Germany’s early health screening programme for children ...... 171

Heinz Kindler
What explains dangerous parenting and how can it be changed? ............................. 195

D New parenting support and early intervention in European countries

Friedrich Lösel and Doris Bender
Parenting and family-oriented programmes for preventing child behaviour problems: What the evidence tells us ............................................................. 217

Rachel Bray and Mary Daly
Necessary compromises? Tensions in the delivery of parenting support in England 241

Marit Hopman and Trudie Knijn
Happy children in the Netherlands: Positive parenting and problems to solve ........ 257
Table of Contents

Claude Martin
(Re-)Discovering parents and parenting in France: What really is new? .................. 273

Carolyn Stolberg
Converging interventions? Social investment elements in child health strategies in Germany, Sweden, and the United Kingdom ............................................................ 293

Åsa Lundqvist and Ilona Ostner
Parenting and parenting support in Germany and Sweden: Convergence and persistent dissimilarities ............................................................................................ 313

Biographical sketches of the contributors ................................................................. 339