

Contents

Acknowledgements	9
The Editors	11

Introduction

Chapter 1

A Time for Reflection and Dialogue: How Do We Educate Teachers to Meet the Challenges of the 21st Century?	15
--	-----------

Marta Kowalczyk-Walędziak, Alicja Korzeniecka-Bondar, Wioleta Danilewicz, and Gracienne Lauwers

PART I

Issues, Trends and Policies

Chapter 2

Still Building a Better World? Research Reflections on Teacher Education and Identity	27
--	-----------

Amélia Lopes

Chapter 3

Reshaping Teacher Training to Get the Right Education System for a Knowledge Society	43
---	-----------

Gracienne Lauwers

Chapter 4

Let It Begin with Me: The Forging of a Professional Teacher Educator Self	54
--	-----------

Jennifer Yamin-Ali

Chapter 5
	The Albanian Student-Teacher Perspective on Reasons for Choosing Teaching as a Career	79
	Livia Nano, Nada Kallçiu, and Nikoleta Mita
Chapter 6
	Educational Agility	98
	Neus Lorenzo Galés and Ray Gallon
Chapter 7
	No Teacher without a Student... A Theoretical Analysis and Practical Implications of Educational Changes in the Era of Digital Natives	111
	Katarzyna Skok
Chapter 8
	Initial Teacher Education Policies: A Comparison between Italy and the UK. Recent Trends and Future Prospects	127
	Francesco Magni
Chapter 9
	Initial Teacher Training Challenges in a Context of Educational Reform in Lithuania	140
	Aušra Rutkienė and Tetiana Ponomarenko
Chapter 10
	The Teaching Profession in Albania and the Continuous Need for Improvement through Teacher Training Reforms	150
	Heliona Miço
Chapter 11
	Teaching Practice in the Albanian Context: Student-Teachers' Perceptions regarding their Experience in Teaching	168
	Manjola Zaçellari (Lumani)
Chapter 12
	Teachers' Workplace and Personal Wellness: Perspectives from South African Legislation and Policies	184
	Erika Kruger and Lynette Jacobs

PART II
Challenges and Tensions

Chapter 13
An Exploration into the Value of Formative Assessment and the Barriers Associated with the Implementation of Formative Strategies		203
	Frances Green
Chapter 14
The Importance of Physical Activity in the Normative Development of Mental Body Representations during Adolescence. Implications for Teacher Education		223
	Beata Mirucka and Monika Kisielewska
Chapter 15
Children's Rights and Human Rights as a Key Condition for the Education of Transformative Teachers		239
	Anna Babicka-Wirkus
Chapter 16
Are Innovations a Contribution to the Professional Development of Teachers?		253
	Elżbieta Jaszczyszyn and Iwona Lewkowicz
Chapter 17
Teachers' Team Learning in the Context of Creating Learning Schools: Implications for Teacher Education		269
	Bożena Tołwińska
Chapter 18
Components, Models and Operational Mechanisms of Teacher Collaboration		283
	Katalin Tóth-Pjeczka, Nóra Rapos, and Judit Szivák
Chapter 19
Didactic Cooperation between Teachers and Students in Higher Education: Utopia or Real Opportunity?		300
	Anna Krajewska

PART III
Practices and Strategies

Chapter 20
A COOL Lab for Teacher Education		319
	Barbara Sabitzer, Heike Demarle-Meusel, and Christoph Painer
Chapter 21
Intercultural Learning for Pupils and Teachers: A Good Practice Case Study from an Erasmus+ Project		329
	Elisa Briga
Chapter 22
A Restorative Approach to Address Cyber Bullying		340
	Roelof Petrus Reyneke
Chapter 23
Motivational Strategies of Local and Foreign Students: Socio-Cultural Commonalities and Differences		355
	Julia Kazakova
Chapter 24
The Importance of Emotional Intelligence in the Creative Activity of Students		368
	Katarzyna Szorc and Beata Kunat
Chapter 25
Exploring Learning and Teaching Needs of Elderly People: A Comparative Study		381
	Emilia Kramkowska, Wioleta Danilewicz, Tomasz Prymak, and João Pedro Constâncio
Index		398