Contents

Notes on contributors .................................................................7
List of abbreviations ................................................................13
Acknowledgements ..................................................................19

Introduction: An elusive changing international order ................21
Élise Féron and Jyrki Käkönen

PART 1 - Emergence and Challenges of Regionalism ............33
1. Africa and World War II: The emergence of an imposed regionalization ..........................................................................35
   Tuomo Melasuo
2. The emergence of BRICS: An extension of interregionalism to the Global South ............................................................................61
   Shraddha Naik
3. BRICS and the emergent countries in the twenty-first century:
   Discussing contemporary perspectives ....................................83
   Gabriel Rached
4. Regionalism as resistance? South Africa’s utopia of Souths ..........105
   Bianca Naude

PART 2 - Contemporary Regionalism in Practice ..............131
5. Bilateralism and multilateralism: Obstacles to sub-regionalism in the Maghreb .........................................................................133
   Karim Maiche
6. Coping with the changing world order: The case of Russia .........157
   Ekaterina B. Mikhailenko and Igor M. Adami
7. From competitive to inclusive trade regionalism: How to consolidate economic cooperation through a revival of ‘ambitious RTAs’ between major trading nations ....................179
   Marko Juutinen
8. Foot in the Door: China’s Investments in the Arctic Region ..........201
   Terry McDonald and Benjamin Klasche
PART 3 - Theoretical Perspectives on the Changing World Order .....223

9. Beyond Ideology: a reassessment of regionalism and globalism in IR theory, using China as a case study ..............................................225
   Giovanni Barbieri

10. Liberal international order without liberalism:
    Chinese visions of the world order ............................................. 253
    Matti Puranen

11. International Relations in the Finnish national epos, Kalevala:
    Encounters of historical epochs and civilizations in the changing international order ..............................................275
    Jyrki Kääkönen

Index .............................................................................................................301