Content

Preface by the Editors ................................................................................................. 9

Welcome Address of the Secretary-General of the Bundesrat ......................... 11

Arthur Benz and Felix Knüpling
Introduction .................................................................................................................. 13

1. The Relevance of Constitutional Change

Angelica Schwall-Düren
Unity versus Diversity. Federalism as an Ever Evolving System ............... 27

John Kincaid
The Relevance of Constitutional Change in Federal Systems .................. 31

2. Constitutional Reform in “Co-operative” Federalism

Dieter Freiburghaus
Swiss Federalism, Fiscal Equalisation Reform and the Reallocation of Tasks .............................................................. 53

Gérard Wettstein
Why Federal Reform Succeeded in Switzerland ........................................... 81

Peter Bußjäger
The “Austrian Convention”: The Failure of an Ambitious Reform .......... 97

Anton Hofmann
Constitutional Negotiations in Cooperative Federalism –
The Case of Germany ............................................................................................. 119
3. Constitutional Reform in Federal Systems with Divided Societies

Dave Sinardet
Federal Reform and Party Politics. The Case of the Fifth Belgian State Reform ............................................................... 135

Nadia Verrelli
Negotiating the Charlottetown Accord in Canada ....................... 161

César Colino and José A. Olmeda
The Limits of Flexibility for Constitutional Change and the Uses of Sub-national Constitutional Space: The Case of Spain ................. 191

4. Devolution and Regionalisation in Federalising States

James Mitchell
Britain’s Constitutional Moment ............................................. 213

Franco Bassanini
Federalising a Regionalised State. Constitutional Change in Italy ....... 229

Patrick Le Lidec
Decentralisation and Territorial Reforms in France:
How Constitutional Constraints Impact Strategies for Reform .......... 249

5. Processes of Ratification

Markus Kaltenborn
Constitutional Amendment Rules in Federal and Unitary States .......... 271

Carlos Closa
Constitutional Rigidity and Procedures for Ratifying Constitutional Reforms in EU Member States ................................. 281

Jörg Kemmerzell and Bettina Petersohn
Regional Actors’ Participation in Constitutional Reform:
Opportunities, Limits and Risks .................................................... 311

6. Evolution after a Constitutional Reform

Christoph Konrath
Austria after the Austrian Convention ......................................... 333
Marc-Antoine Adam and Martin Fournier
Constitutional Change in Canada after Charlottetown ......................... 351

Wolfgang Renzsch
German Federalism after two Reforms .................................................... 375

7. Conclusion

Arthur Benz and Felix Knüpling
Federalism and Constitutional Change: Lessons from Comparison ....... 395

Editors and Authors ................................................................................. 413

Index ........................................................................................................ 415