Table of contents

Foreword and acknowledgements ............................................................ 7
List of contributors ................................................................................... 9
The crisis that shook the world ................................................................. 11
Ursula J. van Beek

PART I: Global economic crises and their political impact

1. Collapse. The story of the international financial crisis, its causes and policy consequences ................................................................. 25
   Stan du Plessis

2. The impact of the Great Depression on democracy .......................... 47
   Dirk Berg-Schlosser

PART II: The economy and democracy

3. The crisis: possible impacts on economic systems and policy .......... 61
   Philip Mohr

4. Democracy, error correction and the global economy .................... 79
   Laurence Whitehead

5. The model of liberal democracy and varieties of capitalism .......... 97
   Ursula Hoffmann-Lange
PART III: An authoritarian response

6. China and the crisis in historical perspective ................................. 119
   Ursula van Beek

7. A new bi-polarisation? ................................................................. 137
   Edmund Wnuk-Lipinski

8. Chinese crisis management: consolidated authoritarian capitalism as a new brand of political regime? .............................................. 151
   Han Sang-Jin and Lü Peng

PART IV: Towards a new global configuration

9. The Great Recession and its potential impact on popular culture in liberal democracies ................................................................. 173
   Pierre du Toit

10. Global solutions? Searching for democratic approaches to a new world order ........................................................................... 185
     Christer Jönsson

11. Values, interests, power and democracy at a time of crisis ............ 201
     Bernard Lategan

     The consequences of the Great Recession: hypotheses and scenarios
     ......................................................................................... 217
     Edmund Wnuk-Lipinski

     Bibliography ........................................................................... 227

     Index ....................................................................................... 239